

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ENGAGEMENT – INVESTIGATION AND SURVEILLANCE SERVICES

Scorpion Protection International (SPI) will consider all requests for engagement of services and will provide a decision as soon as an evaluation of the request and background checks have been made.

We will only accept a task on the following grounds;

- The request must be legitimate and lawful
- SPI are able to meet the expectation of the client
- Where the client agrees to take on board the professional advice of SPI
- Where the financial agreement is agreed and met
- Where a face to face meeting with the client is carried out prior to acceptance
- Where the client understands that all evidence gathered will remain untampered and unaltered and that SPI cannot be held responsible for lack of evidence or evidence content

We commit to providing each client with a World Class Professional Investigation and Surveillance Service. Our intention is to secure repeat business by providing an outstanding service, maintaining the highly regarded reputation we have earned.

No request is too big or too small, we will consider all requests.

We openly accept New Clients who meet the above considerations. We will assign a senior company representative to liaise with you as your main point of contact within SPI throughout your task.

SPI will NOT fabricate evidence we will ONLY report on our actual findings and provide a full and concise report and signed affidavit to the effect of all information being legally sourced, recorded and provided as accurate and with its integrity in place.

A contract of engagement will be drawn up for all clients of SPI.
