DEVON

Relax and unwind in a stunning location where you can enjoy miles of unspoilt coastline and perfect countryside as you take a refreshing walk, invigorating cycle ride or just breathe in the fresh air whilst relaxing around the park.

Book your holiday at Dove Cottage where you can spend long summer evenings with those you love – enjoy the peace and quiet over a sizzling barbecue or join like-minded people for fun and entertainment.

A delightful mix of scenery, rolling countryside with small fields and hedgerows, villages with thatched cottages, churches on hilltops. Majestic rivers such as the Taw, Torridge and Exe, winding through wooded valleys full of wildlife, leading out to sea.

The moors here are the largest open space in Southern England, full of romantic beauty that is home to the Dartmoor and Exmoor ponies. Heather strewn moorland and broken, granite tors help to make the moors one of the most undiscovered places in England.

The towns and villages here are rich in history and tradition. But there is more to Devon than the rural Devonshire of holiday brochures. Explore castles, gardens and Houses and discover the history of this beautiful county. All these features make Devon a popular holiday destination and the ideal place for you and your family to holiday.
