

Learn,
Laugh
and

Live!

Hi from all the members of Bournemouth U3A, We're still keeping on going, not fading away,
Whether by phoning, emailing or using Zoom, We certainly know how to dispel any gloom.

We meet on screen, we chat and have a laugh, Some groups paint, others take a photograph,
Or write a story, perhaps compose a pop song, So many things to join in, it's great to belong.

Singing, languages, T'ai Chi, music, you choose, A discussion group where you can air your views.
If you like to use your brain and solve mysteries, You can learn how to research your family's histories.

The U3A is for people not in full employment, Bournemouth U3A helps to improve enjoyment
Of a time in life when many things have changed, And our priorities had to be rearranged.

Experience has taught us opportunities are there, Also, fun and friendships are waiting for us to share
We hope to meet face to face later in the year, How you can get by, we will make it clear.

When One door Closes

When one door closes, Everyone supposes

*You'll be feeling blue, You'll be feeling blue, When one door closes
Often ain't a bed of roses So, I'm gonna tell you what you've got to do.*

Hold your head up high Reach for the sky

*Find a new door that you can try, Don't turn back the clock
The past has been locked, Just find another door and walk on through.*

When one door closes What everyone knows is

*You're gonna wonder why? When one door closes
That's the question it poses So, I'm gonna tell you what you've got to try*

'When One Door Closes', is a song written by one of the members of our song-writing group

'A Lilt Of Songwriters'. You can listen to the whole song here free.
