

GOODBYE

Look at the long lines - read the words again - you didn't mess it up.

Come on again - don't accept the pain!

Gentle wind dries your tears - taste the salt on your lips.

Stop dreaming now! - He never comes back!

Go to the beach – stretch out in the sunset.

Enjoy your heavy drinks – smoke one spicy cigarette.

I think - its better - to crush this sheet letter!

Forget the “Pick-Up Artists” – they are never worth it.

Talk of the town, so true - but doesn't really touch you.

Hey Babe! Show him what you made of!

Go to the beach – stretch out in the sunset.

Enjoy your heavy drinks – smoke one spicy cigarette.

Life's too short to despair!

Too proud to loose!

Too strong to broke!

No time to die!

Goodbye!
