

TRUCKER'S DREAMS

<< Sixth drive on highway 2 - the coffee spills onto my shoe >>

<< Alone through the country - direction west-east >>

<< The last sunbeam disappears in the street >>

2.000 miles - then I'm with you

2.000 miles - then I'm at home

Dream of your smile and the heart on my soul

Can't wait - can't stand it anymore

<< Alone through the country - direction west-east >>

<< The last sunbeam disappears in the street >>

Only 10 miles - then I'm with you

Only 10 miles - and the engine stops

Finally - it's true - smell your curly peach hair

You look at me and everything is forgotten

Hello Darling! Looking forward to my meal!

Hello Darling! Love you more than ever!

<< Sixth drive on highway 2 - the coffee spills onto my shoe >>

Hello Darling! I want to marry you!
