

This diagram illustrates the assembly of a BAYROL control system. The main components and their labels are as follows:

- 100599: Main control unit with a digital display and buttons.
- 189510: A component connected to the main unit, possibly a sensor or actuator.
- L188: A cable or hose connecting the main unit to the control valve.
- 100600: A cable or hose connecting the main unit to the control valve.
- L178: A cable or hose connecting the main unit to the control valve.
- L185: A cable or hose connecting the main unit to the control valve.
- W124: A component, possibly a valve or actuator, connected to the main unit.
- L180: A cable or hose connecting the main unit to the control valve.
- L182: A cable or hose connecting the main unit to the control valve.
- L183: A cable or hose connecting the main unit to the control valve.
- 124105: A component, possibly a valve or actuator, connected to the main unit.
- L251: A cable or hose connecting the main unit to the control valve.
- L258: A cable or hose connecting the main unit to the control valve.
- Z1: A component, possibly a valve or actuator, connected to the main unit.
- 100141: A component, possibly a valve or actuator, connected to the main unit.
- W124: A component, possibly a valve or actuator, connected to the main unit.
- W127: A component, possibly a valve or actuator, connected to the main unit.
- L118: A cable or hose connecting the main unit to the control valve.
- L116: A cable or hose connecting the main unit to the control valve.
