

Canton Fair (UK) Ltd

Helping you purchase effectively from China

Hello

你好

*We can be
"Your Office in China"*

who we are

We are a UK registered business with an extensive infrastructure in mainland China. Our offices are based in Staffordshire, Melbourne Australia, and in the cosmopolitan city of Dongguan, China, from which we offer a multitude of services to our clients all based around safe and effective purchasing from China.

We employ a dedicated and highly educated team of individuals that work on behalf of our clients representing their best interests in China.

Our services extend from a simple company verification designed to check the legal status of companies, to full purchase contracts. We have an extensive infrastructure of quality control staff and offer fixed price man-day inspections to check goods and identify issues prior to shipment from China.

Each year in excess of 200 client companies visit China using our services. We believe we are simply the best platform for carrying out effective business in China.

We Can Be Your Office In China

your office in China

What ever your project from a simple inspection to a complete office account you are allocated a direct contact from our China office. Our team in China are capable, experienced, educated professional's. Most have worked in "Blue Chip" European businesses and fully understand the cultural differences that they need to overcome daily.

Anyone who tells you business in China is straightforward has simply little experience or a significant amount of luck.

We guide our clients through a purchasing process, legally contracting orders, fully specifying products and ensuring that factories and suppliers adhere to the terms agreed between both parties.

We have a fully qualified and regulated legal office that support our contracts team and clients. Call us today to see how we can help.

Canton Fair (UK) Ltd

Imagine if you would the concept of your own employees in China, representing your companies needs. Add in a fully qualified legal team to assist, advise and help execute your purchase contracts. In addition a team of highly experienced negotiators and specialists with product, shipping and export knowledge. Imagine if you could access all of this on a pro-rata basis, paying in effect only for the hours you use.

In a very simplified message this is what you get using our “Your Office In China” concept. We have a fully serviced suite of offices housing both legal and graduate personnel all multilingual, all intelligent and use to working with overseas businesses representing their needs in China. Our concept works well for both parties, representing your business professionally overseas, contracting your orders legally in China, working with your factories to irradiate the issues prior to orders being produced and delivered. Equally this cements the relationship with your supplier in a professional and concise manner.

We Can Be Your Office In China

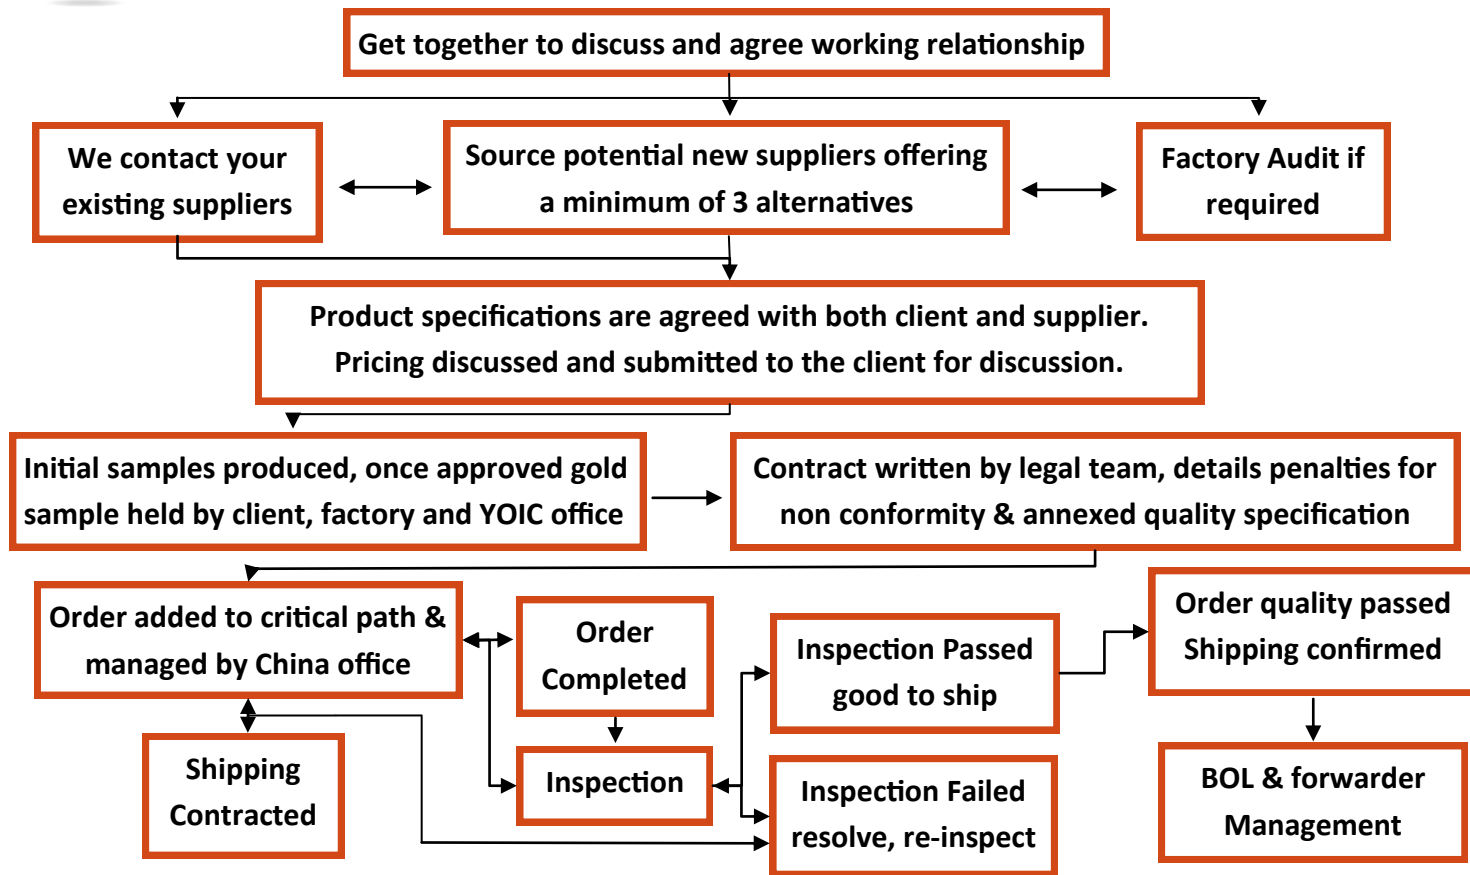

the concept

China is a surprisingly law abiding country. We create and agree a quality standard, then annexe this to an official legal contract that is written in Chinese. This clearly defines all terms which are agreed including late delivery penalties, deviations penalties and payment. Once this has been completed both parties clearly understand their legal obligations and their contractual requirements. Lead language is Chinese and Dongguan courts are specified should any contractual issues need to be submitted for review by the Judiciary.

The reality is simple, once this stage has been complete it is very rare any issues come to light and those that do are simply referred to the agreement.

All this for a pre-agreed and transparent cost, invoiced from the UK, serviced from our Asian headquarters situated in Dongguan City, Guangdong, China.

methodology

Our team our highly experienced moving in excess of 200 containers a month at busy times. We have shipped goods to all continents of the world and are familiar with many country requirements. Our product experience is vast, our experience is comprehensive.

"lets work together to get it right first time around"

China is a sophisticated market place, company owners still make many of the day to day decisions. When problems arise, it is not unusual in our experience for factory owners to ignore their moral obligations in favour of profits, leaving many companies with substandard products and little in terms of options.

Many Chinese companies look at the individual transaction rather than the longer term picture. From time to time we are contacted by people that have been defrauded full containers and often just a simple company check would have highlighted many questions and issues.

Quality issues and drift can all be identified at inspection control. Simple steps can save thousands of pounds. Our contracts protect at much higher level, fully legal & enforceable.

"Why take the risk, our simply procedures can save you thousands!"

inspect your goods

Pre-delivery checks are a necessity if you want to avoid issues when goods are landed. A simple man-day inspection can save a company thousands by identifying issues and problems prior to shipment and by comparison cost a relatively small amount. Canton Fair UK Ltd benefit from a significant number, around 180, of quality staff positioned around China which allows us to offer a simple charging system for a man-day inspection, including travel and report. During an inspection we endeavour to perform functionality testing. We take a pre inspection requirement request form from the client in which they identify any known issues and functionality testing required. After inspection a full report is issued within 24 hours detailing their findings and offering photographic support. Our QC managers are available to answer additional questions if required.

We can offer specialist testing including spectroscopy, chemical analysis and electrical compliance along with many others.

need to visit China?

Our business exists to supply the best possible platform in which to visit China. We are not a travel company, but a facilitator of business. We can assist in translation, contracting, inspection, negotiation, audit and visit accompaniments. We can plan the itinerary maximising efficiency.

It is important when visiting to dictate your agenda, travel to China is both expensive time wise and financially it's therefore essential that you achieve your goals and not simply those set by your suppliers.

We offer a number of services that on occasion negate the necessity to visit. These include, factory audit's giving a photographic and structured overview, product inspection from simple man day or AQL to full
