collection in the world. Its impressive authentic documents combined with new media bear witness to Beethoven's life and compositions. Lunch in restaurant Em Höttche at the historical market place. Depart by coach for the spa town Bad Neuenahr-Ahrweiler. Bad Neuenahr-Ahrweiler is the centre of the Ahr Valley and embedded in vineyards. It is one town with two centres, the romantic half-timbered houses in the centre of Ahrweiler are surrounded by the medieval town walls, which are still entirely preserved, whereas in Bad Neuenahr you surrender to the exquisite flair of the spa town and the new art buildings. Set up & rehearsal. Reception by the mayor of Bad Neuenahr-Ahrweiler and outdoor concert at the spa gardens. Dinner at local restaurant. Overnight at your hotel Bonn area.

Day 5 | Bonn – Königswinter – Nemed: After breakfast transfer to Schloss Drachenburg, Königswinter, take the Drachenfels Railway up the mountain. Option to visit the Castle or just take in the splendid view of the Rhine. Transfer by coach to Remagen for dinner in brewery restaurant on the Rive Rhine Brauhaus Remagen. Continue to Schloss Burg Nemed – set up & rehearsal. Outdoor Concert at the inner yard of Castle Nemed (if weather permits). Dinner and overnight at your hotel Bonn area.

Day 6 | Bonn – Mainz – Bad Ems: After breakfast check out and continue to Mainz for a guided walking tour including Mainz Cathedral and the Gutenberg museum. Founded by the Romans in the first century BC, Mainz is one of Germany's oldest cities. This is a place where history, culture and commerce combine harmoniously in a beautiful city. Mainz Cathedral represents a peak point of Germany's Romanesque cathedral architecture. At the Gutenberg museum the story of the city's most famous son Johannes Gutenberg is revealed. In homage to the man that invented the printed press, the Guttenberg museum has become world renowned for specializing in the history of the printed word. Lunch in local restaurant. Check into your hotel in Mainz. Afternoon transfer to the UNESCO World Heritage spa town Bad Ems for rehearsal and concert at the local music festival. The Emperor's Spa thrills by its historical scenery: magnificent baroque buildings and masterpieces of the spa-architecture. The wealth of sights is the result of the historic past of the Emperor's Spa dating back to Roman times. Famous people of the European history, aristocrats, artists and writers have left their traces. The composer Jacques Offenbach for example worked as a concert master here in Bad Ems for 12 years. Some of his works were performed for the first time in the "Kursaal" (Marble Hall). He composed parts of his opera "Orpheus in underground" during that time. Dinner and overnight at your hotel in Mainz.

Day 7 | Mainz – Heidelberg – Wiesbaden: After breakfast travel south to Heidelberg to explore the historical flair of this traditional University City and to visit the famous Heidelberg Castle. Lunch in a local restaurant. Afternoon visit to Wiesbaden to participate in a Henkell Sparkling winery cellar tour. Experience the impressive rococo Marble Hall and the 200,000-litre casks in the seven-storey-deep wine cellars. Taste exquisite varieties and enjoy a tantalizing excursion into the world of sparkling wine. Farewell dinner. Overnight at your hotel in Mainz.

Day 8 | Mainz – Frankfurt: After breakfast check out and get transferred to Frankfurt airport for your return flight.

Program can be adapted to your wishes. Good will concerts for amateur music groups, workshops, master classes, joined concerts with local music groups, and festival participations can be arranged. All services are subject to availability at the time of booking.
